Spring Song From Dixie. Mis Spring Song From Dixie
Mis Spring she stays in Dixie Lan'
When all de Noff's a blizzahd;
She sprinkles sweet on ebhy han'
En wakes up frog en lizahd.
She puts de blossems on de trees,
En fills de hills wid clovah;
En den she blows a honey breeze
To tell det Wintah's ovah.

"Do stay, Miss Spring." of Dixle say,

So det's de bes' ob libben Souf, De weddeh seems so pleasin'; Red strawberries in yo' mout, Wille all de Noff am freezin'. De robin-redbreas' strut so fine De sof'-crab's in de rivah; While up pas' Mason-Dixon's lin De folks still shake en shivah.

Oh, cum down Souf when blizzahds blow, Oh, cum nown seed.

De lan' ob sweet en plenty;

When we dess hab one day ob snow,

De folks up Noff liab twenty.

Violin and Piano Recital. The musical and social event of to-day is the piano and violin recital to be given at the Woman's Club this evening by Miss Stella Lipman, of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Florence Dillard Hequenthours, of this city.

Miss Stella Lipman, of Washington, and Mrs. Florence Dillard Hequembourg, of this city.

Miss Lipman makes her first appearance in this recital before a Richmond audience, but her reputation as a pianist, who has had the highest advantages in training, and possesses the greatest beauty and power of expression, has preceded her and awakened a lively degree of interest in her performance. Mrs. Hequembourg is a decided favorite with Richmond audiences, who have listened to her often with enthusiastic delight and applause.

A feature of the flue programme to be given is the Strauss Sonate, which has received warm praise in other cities, and will be heard here for the first time.

Patronesses of the evening will be Mrs. F. C. Hahr, Mrs. J. K. Branch, Mrs. A. W. Patterson, Mrs. Clarence Milhiser, Mrs. C. E. Borden, Mrs. T. F. Jeffress, Mrs. M. C. Patterson, Mrs. J. Allison Hodges, Mrs. John W. Harrison, Mrs. R. H. Lindsay, Mrs. Eugene Massie, Mrs. J. Scott Parrish, Mrs. James W. Young, Mrs. George Bryan, Mrs. Francis Deane Williams, Mrs. W. S. Rhoads, Mrs. R. G. Rennfolds, Mrs. L. L. Lewis, Mrs. R. G. Rennfolds, Mrs. L. L. Lewis, Mrs. R. G. Rennfolds, Mrs. J. Taylor Ellyson, Mrs. Cariton Jackson and Mrs. G. H. Whitfield.

SIGNS OF RAIN.

By DR. JENNER.

Edward Jenner who introduced vaccination was born in Gloucestershire, England, May 17, 1740; died January 25, 1823. He was apprenticed to a surgeon, suided under the May 17, 1740; died Hunter, and when twenty-four began to practice medicine. His life was written by Dr. J. Baron. Jenner found time to worship occasionally at the of the muse. While he was not noted as a poet, yet and the work of the muse. While he was not noted as a poet, yet make at level of the many of the country excursion, he sent his excuse in the form of the following poem:

un hollow winds begin to blow. The clouds look black, the glass is low, The soot falls down, the spaniels sleep, And spiders from their cobwebs creep. Last night the sun went pale to bed, The moon in halos hid her head. The boding shepherd heaves a sigh, For seel a rainbow spans the sky. The walls are damp, the ditches smell, Closed is the pink-eyed pimpernel. Hark! how the chairs and tables crack: Old Betty's joints are on the rack. Loud quack the ducks, the peacocks cry. The distant hills are looking nigh. How restless are the snorting swine-The busy flies disturb the kine. Low o'er the grass the swallow wings; The cricket, too, how loud it sings. Puss on the hearth, with velvet paws, Sits smoothing o'er her whiskered jaws. Thro' the clear stream the fishes rise, And nimbly catch the incautions flies. The sheep are seen with early light, Cropping the meads with eager bite. Tho' June, the air is cold and chill; The mellow blackbird's voice is still. The glow-worms, numerous and bright. Illumed the dewy dell last night. At dusk the squalld toad was seen Hopping, crawling, o'er the green. The frog has lost his yellow vest, And in a dingy suit is dress'd, The leech, disturbed, is newly risen Quite to the summit of his prison. The whirling wind the dust obeys, And in the rapid eddy plays. My dog, so altered in his taste, Quits mutton bones on grass to feast; And see you rooks, how odd their flight, They imitate the gliding kite, Or seem precipitate to fall, As if they felt the piercing ball.

'Twill surely rain-I see with sorrow

CELEBRATING BIRTHDAY.

before the law class on the life and work At Age of 85 Fanny Crosby Is Well and Happy.

BRIDGEPORT, CONN., March 24.—
Fanny Crosby Van Alstyne, better known as Fanny Crosby Van Alstyne, better known as Fanny Crosby Van Alstyne, better known as Fanny Crosby the bilind hymn writer, is celebrating her eighty-lifth birthday here to-day, and Sunday, March 20th, is to be observed by many churches through the country as Fanny Crosby Day, Hymns composed by her will be sting, sermons on hymnology will be preached, and collections will be taken up for a "love gift" to her.

Among the first to congratulate her on the compiction of her eighty-fifth year was ex-President Grover Cleveland, who has been her friend for fifty years, "I desire to be early in congratulating you," he wrote, "on your long life of usefulness, and wishing you in the years yet to be added to you the peace and comfort bern of the love of God,"

Mrs. Van Alstyne is still busy writing hymns and poems. "They sing themselves to me," she says, "and I cannot rest till I put them down."

So she keeps her penell and pad ready for immediate use. She is also busy with her autoblography, and has it nearly ready for publication. In spite of her advanced years, she is remarkably well and strong, and is not only able to continue her literary work, but to travel all over the country, visiting churches and church so-cieties.

No. 2165—No cornet cover is better liked than this one that combines a plain back with full fronts. It is shapely and well fitting and movides becoming fullness, while at the same time there is no bulk over the hips. The beaque portion can be added if liked, and serves to keep the cover in place, but the beading at the waist line makes a sufficient finish. Cambrio, long cloth, nainacok and similar, materials are available, while the trimming can effectively be either frills of lace or embroidory. For a lady of medium size the cornet cover will require 11-2 yards 23 inches wide, with 43-8 yards of eduting.
